opening next Wednesday undoubtedly had their effects on keeping down the size of the crowd, which was somewhat under expectations.

With the Chicago White Sox furnishing the opposition, the McGraw machine moved along smoothly to a well-earned triumph over the American Leaguers, 5 to 3. As a result the world's champions are now showing their own heels to the White Sox, after failing in the first eleven games of the series to get better than a tie. Yesterday's game was the twelfth of the set which will be ended at the Polo Grounds this afternoon, and the count now steads six victories to five in favor of the McGraw men, with one game tied.

What the crowd lacked in numbers it atoned for in enthusiasm, particularly in the early afternoon, when the world's champions paraded before the fant for the first time. That the happenings of the late world's series have not been forgotten was made manifest by the amount of epplause showered on various players. None was overlooked, but so ne drew more than others. Manager McGraw Says Giants Should Win Again This Season

MANAGER JOHN J. MEGRAW

"I'm not predicting a pennant," said John J. McGraw, manager of the wild's champion Giants. "I've been too long in this business, and I know that the breaks mean in baseball. We have the team, and, barring accithis, we should win, but that's as far as I care to commit myself on hat will happen in the championship race. "Why shouldn't we win? We're just a strong in every position as last third base, and we're stronger there. We have a great infield with Groh, Bancroft, Frisch and kelly. The outfield at the start will be Meusel, Shinners and Young. I shall be to f Shinners and Young. I shall be to f Shinners. He has been liting very well on the exhibition per very well on the exhibition and the more our fill."

The New York leader also said that he expected Boston, St. Louis and he handles himself in good that on the bases. He is full of shition and trying all the time, too, at that's a healthy sign.

Our catchers, Smith, Synder and consider the best most formidable contenter.
